

Kids Camp 2024 – SGL to Parent Templates:

Sample text:

Hello! This is _____ from Flatirons West and I'm one of _____'s Small Group Leaders for Kids Camp. I just wanted to introduce myself and say that I am so excited to have _____ in our group. You should have received an email from Dan Pollak (the West Kids Director) with all the details that you need for camp. If you didn't receive or have any questions about it, please do not hesitate to reach out!

Just as a reminder, we are offering a Pre-Check for Kids Camp this Sunday from 10-1115a in the Roadside House at West! This will allow you to get all things squared away for Kids Camp a day early. Otherwise, you can get it the first night of camp!

We can't wait to meet you + your child at Kids Camp! See you on June 17 @ 540p for check-in!

Feel free to change up the verbiage. If you've already met the parents, you'll be far more personal.

Sample email:

Good morning/afternoon/evening! This is _____, I'm a volunteer Small Group Leader for Kids Camp at Flatirons West and _____ is in my small group this year. I'm really excited about the group that we have for this week of camp and I'm really looking forward to getting to know _____.

You should have received an email from Dan Pollak (the West Kids Director) with all the details that you need for camp. If you didn't receive or have any questions about it, please do not hesitate to reach out! And, just as a reminder, we are offering a Pre-Check for Kids Camp this Sunday from 10-1115a in the Roadside House at West! This will allow you to get all things squared away for Kids Camp a day early. Otherwise, you can get it the first night of camp!

We can't wait to meet you + your child at Kids Camp! See you on June 17 @ 540p for check-in!

It's a tad longer, but perfect for email length. Feel free to change this up and make it your own.