Jerusalem:

"Why was Saul going to Damascus? Act it out as a group."

Answer: Saul believed that Jesus' followers were going against God's laws. Saul got permission to go to the city of Damascus and arrest the believers there.

Road to Damascus:

"What happened when Saul saw the bright light? Show it using motions!"

Answer: He dropped to the ground and heard the voice of Jesus. All of a sudden Saul became blind! Saul obeyed Jesus even though he was blind!

Ananias' House:

"What did God tell Ananias he had to do? Did Ananias listen to God? Work together to come up with a short conversation and act it out."

Answer: God instructed Ananias to find Saul and place his hands on him to heal him of blindness. Even though Ananias knew Saul was in Damascus to arrest believers, he listened to God, and Saul's sight returned!

Damascus:

"Saul immediately started preaching about Jesus, but the religious leaders weren't happy about that. Come up with something Saul might have shared."

Answer: answers will vary, but they could be like: Jesus paid for your sins so you can be God's friend forever!

Back to Jerusalem:

"What did Barnabas do to help Saul? Show it as a group in a freeze-frame pose!"

Answer: Barnabas took Saul to the Jesus-followers himself and told them all about Saul's journey. The believers finally accepted Saul as one of their own!

Tarsus:

"Saul's new friends helped him return to his hometown of Tarsus, where he would be safe. What is one way your team can live in peace with others? Share your ideas."

Answer: Kids might say: taking turns playing a game instead of arguing, using kind words instead of being bossy, if we see someone playing alone, we can ask them to play, etc.
