Your parent breaks the news that they won't be able to come to your chorus concert at school tonight because they're working late. You know your grown-ups work hard and that it's a busy season for their job. But your feelings are hurt because you really wanted them to be there! How can you respond to a parent when they tell you the news?

Two of your best friends are arguing, and you feel stuck in the middle. They each keep talking to you about the other. Even though you understand why they are both angry, you are tired of hearing them complain about it. Plus, you miss the days when all three of you hung out together. What can you say to help?

You're the captain of your sports team. During a game, a parent of one of your teammates starts yelling at the referee about something they didn't agree on. Now another parent from the other team is yelling at them and tensions are rising! How can you get involved?

On the way home from sports practice, your grown-up decides to pick up food for dinner. You and your sister cannot agree on what you want. You really want a burger and fries, but your sister wants tacos. You both can't agree on whose turn it is to choose dinner. Your grown-up wants you all to make a decision quick. What can you do?

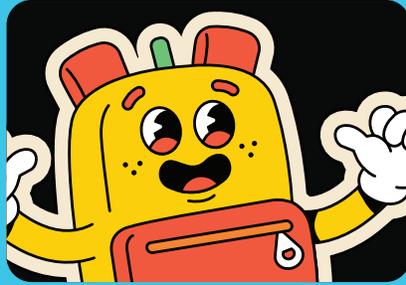

There's someone at school that most kids call "the troublemaker." But you've grown up next door to them, and you've seen how smart, kind, and funny they've become. How can you help others see and believe the best in him?

You recently had a few bad grades on school assignments. Several things have happened in the classroom lately that make you feel like your teacher is singling you out. Your frustration is growing, and it's affecting your school days. You keep trying to brush it off and ignore it, but that's not helping. If you talk to your teacher, what would you even say?

Even though it's summertime, you still wake up early every day for camps your parents signed you up for. You'd rather just sleep in, stay home, and relax all summer! Finally, one morning, you yell at your grown-up about your feelings. You know you shouldn't have done that. How can you make things right?

VERSE

You're my courage
I don't have to be afraid
You're my fortress
No matter what comes my way
You're my treasure forever
Yes we'll be together always

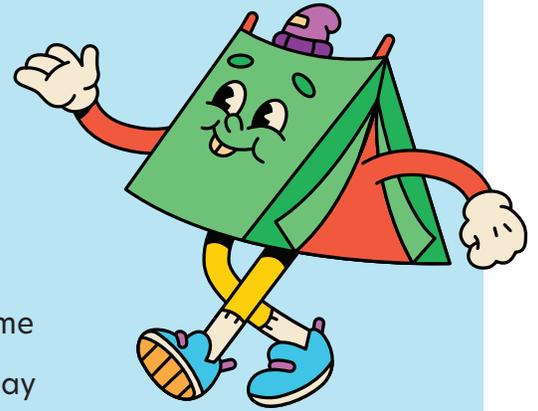

CHORUS

Even when the days get harder
I know You'll rescue me
Even when the sky is darker
I know You'll bring me peace
You are my strength
You are my Savior, oh
Even when the road gets longer
I know You'll be with me
Even when the waves crash harder
Your face is all I see
You are my strength
You are my Savior, oh

VERSE 2

You are with me
Every single day
Through the darkness
Oh You lead the way
You're my treasure forever
Yes we'll be together always

BRIDGE

Every time I fall You pick me up
You fight for me You overcome
You bring me peace You give me love
For You I sing to You I run
I praise Your name for all You've done
You are my strength
You are my Savior, oh

ANYTHING EVER

I see the sun rising up to bring
Light to the night it's a beautiful thing
It's all because you love me
It's all because you love me

I see the sky no more clouds or rain
You've given me another beautiful day
It's all because you love me
It's all because you love me

Your love is bigger
Your love is stronger
Your love is better
Better than anything ever
Hey hey
Better than anything ever
Hey hey

I know you're with me wherever I go
You promise me I am never alone
It's all because you love me
It's all because you love me

You give me joy and you bring me peace
Gave me a voice so that I could sing
It's all because you love me
It's all because you love me

Your love is bigger
Your love is stronger
Your love is better
Better than anything ever
Hey hey
Better than anything ever
Hey hey

Your love is bigger
Your love is stronger
Your love is better
Better than anything ever
Hey hey
Better than anything ever
Hey hey

Your love is bigger
Your love is stronger
Your love is better
Better than anything ever
Hey hey
Better than anything ever
Hey hey

Hey hey

JESUS IS PEACE

© 2023 Amazing Life Foundation.

VERSE:

Today I'm thankful
For the hope that You gave me
For the cross when You saved me
You're the friend I call my own
Now I know I'm not alone

So thankful
For Your love on display
And it will never go away
You're the reason for my song
Now I know we all belong

PRE:

You show me what peace is all about
It's my turn to go and live it out
Jesus, You're the way without a doubt

CHORUS:

I'm gonna love
The way You first loved me
I'm gonna praise
The One who set me free
We gotta show
Forgiveness that we need
Like I know You did for me, I believe
Jesus is peace
