

One day as Jesus was teaching, a man who was an expert in religious laws stood up to test Him. "Teacher . . . what must I do to receive eternal life?" (Luke 10:25, NlrV) the man asked Jesus.

A man was going from Jerusalem to Jericho. On his way, the man was attacked by robbers.

The robbers beat up the man and took off, leaving him nearly dead.

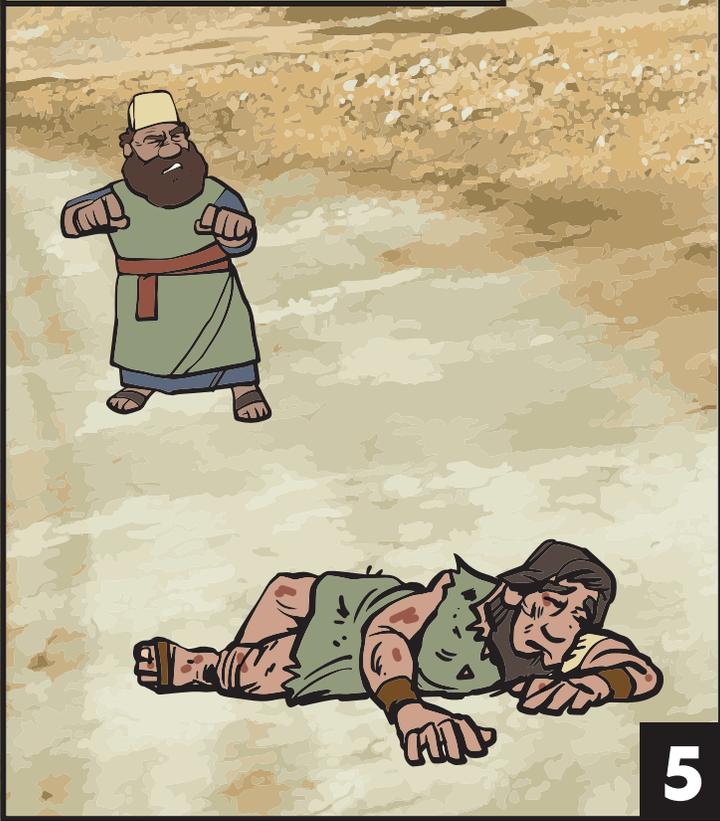

A priest passed by on the other side of the road, and did not help the hurt man.

And the Levite did the same . . .

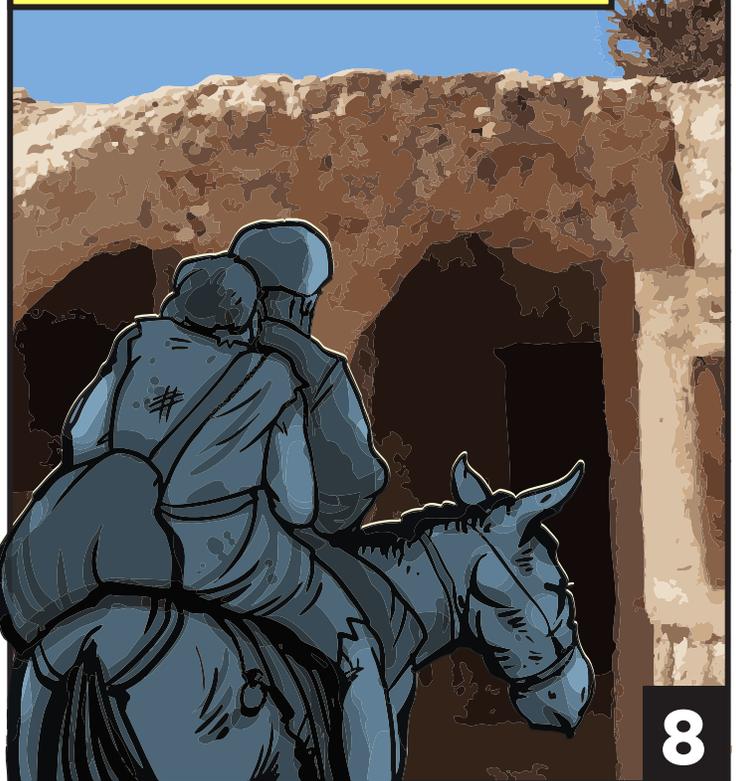

A Samaritan man came along. When the Samaritan saw the traveler, he felt sorry for him.

The Samaritan man bandaged the traveler's wounds, treating them with oil and wine.

The man put the traveler on his donkey and took him to an inn.
