

5

5

5

5

Today your preschooler learned the Bible Story of Jesus forgiving Peter. (Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75; John 21:15-17; Colossians 3:13)

Encourage your child to arrange their story cards to in the correct sequence using the words below.

1. Peter loved and followed Jesus. Jesus and Peter were good friends.
2. Jesus was taken away by some angry soldiers. A girl asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no because he was afraid.
3. Another person asked if Peter was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no again!
4. A group of people asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no for the third time! Peter felt so bad that he went away and cried.
5. Later, after Jesus died and came back, Jesus forgave Peter and told Peter to tell others that Jesus loves them. Peter did what Jesus said, and we can do what Jesus says too!

We learned that forgiveness is loving someone like Jesus and giving them a chance to have a do-over. We can do what Jesus says and forgive others when they make a mistake.

Today your preschooler learned the Bible Story of Jesus forgiving Peter. (Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75; John 21:15-17; Colossians 3:13)

Encourage your child to arrange their story cards to in the correct sequence using the words below.

1. Peter loved and followed Jesus. Jesus and Peter were good friends.
2. Jesus was taken away by some angry soldiers. A girl asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no because he was afraid.
3. Another person asked if Peter was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no again!
4. A group of people asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no for the third time! Peter felt so bad that he went away and cried.
5. Later, after Jesus died and came back, Jesus forgave Peter and told Peter to tell others that Jesus loves them. Peter did what Jesus said, and we can do what Jesus says too!

We learned that forgiveness is loving someone like Jesus and giving them a chance to have a do-over. We can do what Jesus says and forgive others when they make a mistake.

Today your preschooler learned the Bible Story of Jesus forgiving Peter. (Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75; John 21:15-17; Colossians 3:13)

Encourage your child to arrange their story cards to in the correct sequence using the words below.

1. Peter loved and followed Jesus. Jesus and Peter were good friends.
2. Jesus was taken away by some angry soldiers. A girl asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no because he was afraid.
3. Another person asked if Peter was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no again!
4. A group of people asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no for the third time! Peter felt so bad that he went away and cried.
5. Later, after Jesus died and came back, Jesus forgave Peter and told Peter to tell others that Jesus loves them. Peter did what Jesus said, and we can do what Jesus says too!

We learned that forgiveness is loving someone like Jesus and giving them a chance to have a do-over. We can do what Jesus says and forgive others when they make a mistake.

Today your preschooler learned the Bible Story of Jesus forgiving Peter. (Matthew 26:31-35, 69-75; John 21:15-17; Colossians 3:13)

Encourage your child to arrange their story cards to in the correct sequence using the words below.

1. Peter loved and followed Jesus. Jesus and Peter were good friends.
2. Jesus was taken away by some angry soldiers. A girl asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no because he was afraid.
3. Another person asked if Peter was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no again!
4. A group of people asked Peter if he was Jesus' friend, and Peter said no for the third time! Peter felt so bad that he went away and cried.
5. Later, after Jesus died and came back, Jesus forgave Peter and told Peter to tell others that Jesus loves them. Peter did what Jesus said, and we can do what Jesus says too!

We learned that forgiveness is loving someone like Jesus and giving them a chance to have a do-over. We can do what Jesus says and forgive others when they make a mistake.